The General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) is the new legal framework coming into effect on 25th May 2018. The new legislation will build on current data protection laws providing every organisation with a new set of obligations to strengthen the way that they hold and process data.

London New Zealand Cricket Club has updated its Privacy Policy to embrace the new requirements as to how we process your personal data. You can find the updated Privacy Policy on the club website at www.lnzcc.org which provides detailed information on how we use and protect your personal information and your rights in relation to this.

The personal information that we hold on you will always be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way
- Collected only for valid reasons as explained in the policy
- Accurate and kept up to date
- Kept only as long as necessary
- Kept securely

These updates reinforce our commitment to your data privacy and security. We trust you find them acceptable.

You have the right to opt-out from us storing your data by contacting the Honorary Secretary at Secretary@lnzcc.org and putting 'Opt Out' in the subject line. This will trigger the opt out process.

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email the Honorary Secretary at secretary@lnzcc.org or write to us at:
